EVERY TILLABLE ACRE

Should Be A Producing Factor in 1918

Idle Land is an Eye-sore and an Economic Waste

The FAMILY producing its own vegetables for summer use, for canning and for winter storage, lends just that much to the winning of the war.

The FARMER who tills ONE ADDITIONAL ACRE and gives EVERY CULTIVATED ACRE JUST A BIT MORE CARE than ever before, contributes in still greater proportion to his job of helping to feed the men at the front, the peoples of our allied countries and the folk at home.

To the AMERICAN FARMER, in the production of food-stuffs, is given one of the greatest and most glorious privileges and responsibilities in the complete program of prosecuting this war to a satisfactory conclusion.

Food Will Win the War

Produce it Conserve it

HUNDREDS OF ACRES OF VIRGIN SOIL in the right-of-way of the Grand Rapids & Indiana Railway are available, FREE OF RENTAL, to company employes, to adjoining owners and renters, and to other persons, for planting to WAR GARDENS, or COMMERCIAL CROPS, such as beans, potatoes, sugar beets, corn, wheat, rye, oats, etc.
